ISLAND AIR STILL CELEBRATING THE HOLIDAYS INTO THE NEW YEAR

HONOLULU – At Island Air “the gift of giving” continues with $99 roundtrip inter-island fares. The $99 roundtrip fare includes all taxes and fees. Travel is good until March 20, 2008 and must be purchased online from December 25 through 31, 2007.

Les Murashige, Chief Operating Officer said, “This is a special holiday offering to visit family and friends over the holiday or during the New Year. It’s also an opportunity for our smaller neighbor island communities to take advantage of after Christmas sales at malls in Honolulu and Kahului.”

One of the best gifts anyone could receive this holiday season is the certainty that the fare they are quoted is the fare they pay. Combined with a generous amount of available seats, the “gift of giving” continues. That’s Island Air.

Seats are capacity controlled and other restrictions may apply. Itinerary changes are subject to a change fee and/or collection of fare difference. Fare is non-refundable and non-transferable.

Island Air is Hawai‘i’s leading regional carrier, serving more destinations in Hawai‘i than any other airline. The airline now offers 465 weekly flights between the Islands of O‘ahu (Honolulu International Airport), Maui (Kahului Airport and West Maui’s Kapalua Airport), Moloka‘i (Ho‘olehua Airport), Lana‘i (Lana‘i City Airport), Kaua‘i (Lihu‘e Airport), and the Island of Hawai‘i (Hilo International Airport and Kona International Airport).
