Media Statement Aloha Airlines Shutdown

HONOLULU- "On behalf of Island Air, our hearts go out to the Aloha Airline Ohana during this difficult time. In the days ahead, Island Air and indeed the Hawaii airline community are committed to servicing Aloha passengers and making sure they get to their final destinations.

In addition, Island Air will be assessing the need for additional flights to our schedule based on market demand, said Les Murashige, Chief Operating Officer.

Island Air is Hawai'i's leading regional carrier, serving more destinations in Hawai'i than any other airline. The airline now offers 465 weekly flights between the Islands of O`ahu (Honolulu International Airport), Maui (Kahului Airport and West Maui's Kapalua Airport), Molokai's (Ho`olehua Airport), Lanai's (Lana`i City Airport), Kaua`i (Lihu'e Airport), and the Island of Hawai'i (Hilo International Airport and Kona International Airport).
