ISLAND AIR PRESENTS HAWAII WINTER BASEBALL WITH A SPECIAL APPEARANCE BY SHANE VICTORINO

HONOLULU – Island Air, a regular sponsor of Hawaii Winter Baseball, will be celebrating “Island Air Game Night” on Saturday, November 15, 2008, at Les Murakami Stadium on the University of Hawaii Manoa campus. World Series Champion and Maui’s own Shane Victorino of the Philadelphia Phillies will be making an appearance to welcome fans and throw out the first pitch.

Information on how to purchase tickets to Hawaii Winter Baseball games can be found online at www.hawaiiwinterbaseball.com. Adults tickets are $6, children ages 4 to 12 are $3. There is special pricing for students, seniors and military; children 3 years and younger are free.

League President Hervy Kurisu said, “Hawaii Winter Baseball is excited to be honoring Shane Victorino at Island Air’s game night. We’re proud of Shane not only for the World Series title and Gold Glove award, but for representing Hawaii so positively on the game’s highest stage. He is a great role model for all of the young baseball players in the islands.”

Island Air is pleased to partner with Hawaii Winter Baseball to create an opportunity for local fans to see Shane Victorino and applaud his triumphant season. Phillies fans and supporters of Hawaii’s local athletes are encouraged to attend.

Island Air is Hawaii’s leading regional carrier, serving airports on all major Hawaiian Islands. The airline now offers 414 weekly flights between the Islands of O’ahu (Honolulu International Airport), Maui (Kahului Airport and West Maui’s Kapalua Airport), Moloka’i (Ho’olehua Airport), Lana’i (Lana’i City Airport), Kaua’i (Lihue Airport), and the Island of Hawai’i (Hilo International Airport and Kona International Airport).
